

Profile pictures for official committee accounts

The profile pictures here should only be used for official committee accounts complying with the ISO committee, or ISO/IEC committee, Social Media Guidelines. By using this common image all committee accounts can share a common branding, which gives you more credibility, as it helps potential followers to easily identify official pages. The profile pictures cannot be used in an individual's account.

