Re: Patent Licensing by Alcatel-Lucent

Dear Ms Griffin:

This will confirm that if Alcatel-Lucent has patents and/or pending applications that are essential to implementation of an adopted or recommended ANS standard that includes one or more parts of a submission made by Alcatel-Lucent, Alcatel-Lucent is prepared to grant, on the basis of reciprocity (grantback), a license on such included parts, on reasonable and non-discriminatory terms and conditions.

This licensing statement replaces the statement sent by Lucent Technologies Inc to your organization on March 1, 1999.

Sincerely Yours,
