The U.S. Federal Register Update contains summaries of entries in the U.S. Federal Register that may be of particular interest to the standards and conformity assessment community. This update is provided on a weekly basis by ANSI as a service to its members as part of the Institute's e-newsletter, What's New?

Certain Cold-Rolled Steel Flat Products From Japan: Final Results of Changed Circumstances Review, and Revocation of Antidumping Duty Order, in Part

Published 3/2/2017

Reference ASTM

On January 4, 2017, the Department of Commerce (the "Department") published its initiation and preliminary results of a changed circumstances review ("CCR") and stated its intention to revoke, in part, the antidumping duty order on certain cold-rolled steel flat products from Japan (the "Order"). The Department preliminarily determined that producers accounting for substantially all of the domestic production of the like product had no interest in the continued application of the Order with respect to certain light gauge cold-rolled flat-rolled steel meeting the requirements of ASTM A424 Type 1. For the final results, the Department is revoking, in part, the Order with respect to the cold-rolled steel flat products described above. Effective March 2, 2017.
