

U.S. Celebration of
World Standards Day 2003

Building Global Security Through Standards

Tuesday, September 30, 2003
5:30 - 9:30 pm

U.S. Chamber of Commerce
Washington, DC

U.S. Celebration of World Standards Day 2003

Theme: Building Global Security Through Standards

Whether viewed on a micro level – helping to protect the health and safety of individuals and communities – or on a macro level – securing information technology systems, communications, international trade, transportation and more – globally recognized standards address the security needs of the nation and the world. This year's celebration will highlight the work that is already underway or complete, such as the information technology (IT) and communications technologies that support secure financial transactions and biometrics, while also leading to the identification of new needs.
