

DIETARY SUPPLEMENTS STAKEHOLDER EVENT

DECEMBER 6, 2018 - WASHINGTON, DC

20 F Street Conference Center | 20 F St NW, Washington, DC 20001

AGENDA

The American National Standards Institute (ANSI) and the Global Retailer and Manufacturer Alliance (GRMA) are partnering to bring together a wide group of stakeholders interested in learning more about industry-led efforts to advance safety, quality, and trust throughout the dietary supplements supply chain. Interested stakeholders include manufacturers, retailers, government agencies, trade and professional associations, consumer interest groups, and other organizations. We envision a wide-ranging discussion of current standards and conformity assessment-related efforts to address quality and related issues and a look forward.

Thursday, December 6, 2018 | 11 am – 3 pm

Welcome and Opening Remarks

Joe Bhatia, President and CEO, American National Standards Institute (ANSI)

Global Retailer and Manufacturer Alliance (GRMA) Dietary Supplement Update

Michael Finamore, Chairman, GRMA and CEO of Gemini Pharmaceuticals, Inc.

Stakeholder Perspectives

- Council for Responsible Nutrition
 - Supplement Safety and Compliance Initiative
 - Dietary Supplements Quality Initiative
-

Open Discussion of Priorities and Gaps: All Participants

Conclusions and Next Steps

