Join or upgrade to ANSI Full Member by April 30 and receive a valuable credit incentive. Full Membership provides powerful benefits to help you increase efficiency, boost productivity, influence your industry, and stay ahead of the competition – plus a 20% discount on selected standards and site licenses from the ANSI Webstore.

FEATURES AND BENEFITS OF THE ANSI FULL MEMBERSHIP PROMOTION

Upgrade to Full Member by April 30, 2014, and receive a credit equal to 50% of the 2014 total paid dues, to be used toward the purchase of standards or other products and services offered by ANSI (credit expires December 31, 2014).

Benefits of ANSI Full Membership

- Active participation in ANSI governance, policy committees, and programs provides insider access to valuable business intelligence.
- Members build relationships that empower them with a voice and influence over the standardization decisions directly affecting their business.
- Full Members also receive a 20% discount on selected standards and site licenses purchased through ANSI.

Credit Redemption

ANSI credit earned as part of the promotion can be applied toward the following:

- Purchase of standards through the ANSI webstore (webstore.ansi.org)
- Participation fees (i.e. panels, other activities) (www.ansi.org/panels)
- USNC Technical Advisory Group (TAG) fees (www.ansi.org/usnc)
- Advertising through ANSI webstore (www.ansi.org/advertising)
- Other ANSI fee-based activities

Eligible Participants:
Current ANSI Basic Members and Affiliates may upgrade to a ANSI Full Membership and receive the credit incentive. Interested non-members are also eligible. The promotion does not apply to current Full Members.
