Individual Membership

An individual member shall be a United States citizen interested in the development of standards or related activities, who is not eligible for membership under any other membership category. The individual member is not a representative of/for any corporation or organization with which he/she may be affiliated.

Annual Individual Member dues are based upon a flat fee of US$995. Individual Membership allows for only one person for participation in selected ANSI activities, such as ANSI Member Forums and Caucuses. Individual members receive a 10% discount on selected standards purchased via the eStandards Store.

Dues rates and benefits are subject to change.
