Call for Nominations
2005 Annual Awards Program

On behalf of the ANSI Board of Directors and its Awards Committee, I am pleased to invite your nomination of deserving candidates for the Institute's 2005 Leadership and Service Awards.

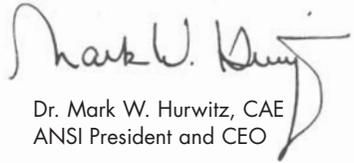

The annual awards ceremony is a long-standing tradition that recognizes outstanding achievements across the broad spectrum of industries and interest groups that comprise our nation's standards and conformity assessment community.

Regardless of their background, award nominees share a common characteristic: they each have dedicated themselves to efforts that will strengthen American competitiveness in a global marketplace and improve the quality of life for workers and consumers around the world.

They join a long and distinguished list of past recipients who have left their mark in the history of the ANSI Federation and the standardization community worldwide.

Please join us in recognizing those men, women and groups who have made generous donations of their time and energy in support of these domestic, bi-lateral, regional and international efforts.

We look forward to receiving your nominations.

Dr. Mark W. Hurwitz, CAE
ANSI President and CEO

Vincent Van Gogh once observed that “great things are not done by impulse, but by a series of small things brought together. ”

Thousands of individuals participate daily in activities that strengthen the private sector-led, public sector-supported voluntary consensus standards and conformity assessment system. 2005 is the year that you can make it possible for a person or group whose accomplishments merit special recognition to receive the acknowledgement that they deserve.

We invite your nomination of candidates for the 2005 awards.

Representatives of industry, government, academia, consumer organizations, standards developers, conformity assessment organizations, and other entities are eligible. Additional information about the nomination process and award descriptions can be found on the pages that follow.

Please forward your nomination(s) for consideration by the ANSI Awards Committee as soon as possible, but no later than the July 29, 2005 deadline.

deadline

Nominations must be received by ANSI no later than Friday, July 29, 2005 (5:00 pm)

Late submissions will be considered at the discretion of the awards committee

deadline

All nominations must be received by ANSI no later than 5:00 pm on Friday, July 29, 2005.

eligibility of candidates and sponsors

- Any member of the U.S. voluntary consensus standards and conformity assessment community, with the exception of current officers of the Institute's Board of Directors, is considered eligible for an award.
- Nominations may be submitted by any member of the Institute; by members of any ANSI board, committee council, or other group; or by the members of an ANSI-accredited standards body or certifier. Nominations submitted with the endorsement of an entire group will be considered accordingly.
- Nominations submitted directly from ANSI staff will be considered at the discretion of the Awards Committee.

what to include

- Identification of the award for which the individual or group is being nominated.
- Name of nominee, current title, and contact information (please include business address, telephone, fax, and e-mail).
- Information on the nominee’s professional career, including a summary of the nominee’s participation in and contribution to organizations engaged in standardization, certification, or measurement (indicate positions held and accomplishments).
- A 100- to 200-word biographical statement of the individual’s eligibility for the award for which he or she is being nominated (see award descriptions for more information).
- A personal statement from the sponsor, suitable for quotation in the nominee’s biography to the Awards Committee, regarding one or more specific accomplishments.
- A statement of the sponsor’s authority to make the nomination, particularly if the nomination is on behalf of a committee or organization.
- A statement regarding the availability of the sponsor, or the sponsor’s designee, to participate in the presentation of awards during a formal (black-tie optional) banquet and presentation ceremony on Wednesday evening, October 5, 2005, in Washington, DC.
- Sponsor’s name, title, organization, contact information, and signature.

deadline

Nominations must be received by ANSI no later than Friday, July 29, 2005 (5:00 pm)

Late submissions will be considered at the discretion of the awards committee

selection process

- The ANSI Awards Committee, consisting of the chairman, immediate past-chairman, and the current vice-chairmen of the Board of Directors, will consider the nominations received for each award.
- Selections are made based on the comparison of data submitted against the description of each award.
- An announcement of the 2005 recipients will be made by mid-August so as to allow adequate time for notification to the award recipient and his or her nominator prior to the presentation ceremony.

selection

- The Awards Committee reserves the right to present a nominee with an award other than the one for which he or she was nominated.
- Only one Medal per year will be awarded in each classification; at the discretion of the Awards Committee, multiple recipients may be named for each of the other award categories.
- If, in the judgment of the Awards Committee, no candidates meet the eligibility requirements, an award may not be given.
- At the discretion of the nominator, candidates not selected for an award may be resubmitted for reconsideration in a subsequent year.
- Each final nominee, selected in accordance with these procedures, will be requested to provide additional biographical information, a photo, and an indication of his or her availability to accept the award at the October 5, 2005, banquet and presentation ceremony.
