

STANDARDS IN THE DIGITAL AGE

USNC YOUNG AND EMERGING PROFESSIONALS SUMMIT

Calling all young and emerging professionals interested in the development of standards! Standards in the Digital Age is a one-day event that will bring experts and future experts together to discuss topics like: the basics of standards and conformity assessment, cybersecurity, the future of standards, and globalization. In addition, join current standards and conformity professionals for a special career development panel. See how standards can jumpstart your career!
