

USNC News & Notes Naming Contest

ENTRY: You may enter the USNC News & Notes Naming Contest by emailing your entry (one name per person) before Monday, 1 July 2013. Entries that are not received before the submission deadline will be ineligible. Please be sure to include your name, organization and relationship to the USNC along with your entry. The entries will be reviewed and a winner will be chosen by a judging panel consisting of:

- USNC President
- USNC General Secretary
- USNC Deputy General Secretary
- USNC Communications and Continuing Education Committee Chair
- ANSI Director of Communications

Suggested criteria for entries:

- no more than around 17 characters long (not including the letters “USNC” as that will be included in the title);
- preferably no more than two or three words;
- not identical with or even too similar to the current title of “USNC News & Notes” or any other current standards publication.

Members of the judging panel will review all eligible entries on the basis of creativity, originality and relevance to the USNC and/or electrotechnical standardization and conformity assessment.

ELIGIBILITY: This Contest is intended for participation by USNC Members and participants, who have a valid e-mail address and are over 18 years of age at the time of entry. Members of the judging panel, USNC Staff and members of their immediate family are not eligible.

PRIZE: The contest winner and new name will be announced at the USNC Council Meeting in September 2013. The Winner will receive a $300 gift certificate or gift card. One prize will be awarded. The winning entry will become the new name of the USNC’s quarterly newsletter beginning with the first issue of 2014.
