Attachments: ExSC_099_2020_CTC_FINAL.pdf; ExSC_066A_2020_McKiel.pdf

Good afternoon –

Thank you for submitting public comments in response to the ANSI Executive Standards Council's (ExSC) third public announcement of a proposed revision to section 3.2 Commercial terms and conditions of the ANSI Essential Requirements: Due process requirements for American National Standards (www.ansi.org/essentialrequirements). The ExSC considered all public comments received and made several edits, approving the attached final version which will now be submitted to the Executive Committee of the ANSI Board of Directors for final approval.

With respect to your specific proposal (attached), the ExSC appreciates your proposed edits and upon further consideration agreed to the following alternative modification:

- However, for informational purposes, where known sources exist for products or services necessary to comply with the ANS, it is permissible, but not obligatory, to identify the sources (which may include a source's name and address) in a footnote, an appendix, or reference to a website. The referenced products or services shall be reasonably available from the referenced sources, the words "or the equivalent" shall be added to the reference, and the reference shall also expressly state that identification of products or services is not an endorsement of those products or services or their suppliers.

Again, thank you for your comments.

Sincerely,
Anne
