

Click the link below to view the following document published by the Hong Kong Environment Protection Department on doing business in Hong Kong. It is not specific to all regulations, but gives good overview of various business sectors. The electrical and electronic section is nice summary of HK view on RoHS and WEEE. You can view in English or Chinese.

http://www.epd.gov.hk/epd/misc/BusinessGuide/english/other/eng_content.htm

Environmental Guide For Smart Business

How to Use This Guide?

繁體中文 | 简体中文

Contents

Section
1	Introduction
2	Overview of Environmental Legislation and Infrastructure In Hong Kong
3	Environmental Legislation and Other Requirements - Generic Industries/Trades
3.1	Plan Your Business
3.2	Start Your Business
3.3	Manage Your Business
3.4	Withdraw Your Business
4	Environmental Requirements-Specific Industries/Trades
4.1	Chemical Processing Industry
4.2	Clinics and Related Laboratories
4.3	Construction and Building Renovation
4.4	Electrical and Electronics Industry
4.5	Fishery and Poultry
4.6	Food and Beverage
4.7	Laundry, Dry-cleaning and Garment Services
4.8	Metal Products Industry
4.9	Recycling Industry
4.10	Textiles and Clothing Industry
4.11	Vehicle Repair and Services
5	Going Beyond Compliance
6	Technical Support
7	Funding Support for Private Enterprises
8	Frequently Asked Questions
APPENDICES
A	Contacts of Environmental Protection Department
B	List of Designated Projects as Specified in the Environmental Impact Assessment Ordinance
C	List of Specified Processes in the Air Pollution Control Ordinance
D	Trade Effluent Surcharge and Sewage Charge
E	Environmental Checklist for Planning and Starting Your Business
F	Environmental and Related Licence Application Timeframe
G	Interpretation of Specific Terms
H	Resource Materials

Disclaimer | Last Revision Date: 25-Oct-2007