BREAKFAST (8:00–8:30 a.m.)
WELCOME AND REFLECTIONS (8:30–8:45 a.m.) The convening will begin with a recap of the discussions from day one, followed by a brief overview of the meeting agenda and objectives.
PARTNERSHIP EXAMPLES (8:45–9:15 a.m.) Attendees will hear examples of current partnerships and related outcomes, followed by a chance for Q&A.
TABLE DISCUSSIONS (9:15–10:15 a.m.) To gather information and knowledge, participants at each table will work together to discuss a set of facilitated questions.
BREAK (10:15–10:30 a.m.)
REPORT OUTS AND GROUP DISCUSSION (10:30–11:00 a.m.) Each table will select one person to report to attendees about the discussions related to a chosen question from the previous discussion.
CROSS-CUTTING PARTNERSHIPS (11:00–11:30 a.m.) Each table will discuss a set of facilitated questions that relate to certifications that involve cross-cutting skills that may be relevant to degree programs across the university (e.g., project management skills for engineering, business, or liberal arts students).
FINAL TAKEAWAYS (11:30–11:45 a.m.) Based on the day’s discussions, participants are each asked to provide one question, one important thing learned, and one action step that will be taken as a result of this convening on an index card. Volunteers are requested to share their feedback with the other participants.
